Request for Admission (No. PHS-MLP-14-90): Admit that under the Peak Responsibility method, as described in the 1973 NARUC Manual, the following steps are taken:

- a. First, one classifies 100% of the capacity-related production cost as demand.
- b. Second, one takes 100% of the demand costs and allocates it based on a peak demand method (e.g., 12 CP).
