

ORIGINAL LIST OF ELIGIBLE COMMUNITIES

This list of communities is based in part on data from the Denali Commission's Telecommunications Services Inventory of Rural Alaska Final Database and Report conducted in 2000. This list should be viewed as tentative. If a community is eligible but not identified on the list, the applicant must provide substantive evidence that the community is eligible. If a community is on the list but currently has local or dial-up service, the community is not eligible under this program.

COMMUNITIES THAT MAY NOT BE ELIGIBLE

As noted at the time of publication, the list of eligible communities is tentative and subject to revision. Since publication of the list of eligible communities, the Regulatory Commission of Alaska has received requests from interested parties to remove certain communities from the list of communities eligible to participate in the grant program.

The name of the community, the reported identity of the provider of local dial-up broadband Internet service, and the identity of the party providing the information are stated below. The following list of potentially ineligible communities is based on information provided by interested parties, and the accuracy of the list has not been verified. Potential grant recipients are encouraged to verify community eligibility before submitting grant program proposals.
