

NOTICE OF PIPELINE CARRIER TARIFF FILING

The REGULATORY COMMISSION OF ALASKA (Commission) gives notice that Swanson River Oil Pipeline, LLC (SROP) has filed a revised tariff rate for the intrastate transportation of petroleum on the Swanson River Oil Pipeline (the Pipeline), as required by the Settlement Agreement between SROP and the Office of the Attorney General, Regulatory Affairs and Public Advocacy Section (RAPA), dated October 17, 2016. SROP and RAPA agreed to an effective date of November 1, 2016 for this revised rate. Docket No. P-15-020 was opened to address this matter.

Normally, the Commission does not notice a rate change when filed as part of a Settlement Agreement that has been accepted by the Commission. However, as part of the Settlement Agreement, SROP and RAPA specifically requested the Commission issue a public notice of this agreed-upon rate change. SROP and RAPA have agreed to increase the rate for the intrastate transportation of petroleum on the Pipeline, from the Swanson River Field to the Tie-in Point with Kenai Pipe Line facilities at the Nikiski Marine Terminal, from the current permanent rate of $0.40 per barrel to a temporary and refundable rate of $0.42 per barrel. SROP and RAPA have agreed that if the Commission receives no protests from an economically interested party, the rate of $0.42 per barrel will become permanent on a date determined by the Commission.
