Search Page

The screenshot shows the 'Entities Search' interface. At the top, there are radio buttons for search types: Documents (1), Open Matters, Entities (selected), Hearings & Meetings, Documents--Full Text, All Matters (Open & Closed), and Certificates. Below this is the 'ENTITY SEARCH' section (2) with a link 'Tell me about this search'. There are two input fields: 'Entity Name:' and 'City:' (with '(mailing address)' text). At the bottom are two buttons: 'Search' (3) and 'Reset Form' (4).

The descriptions in the following table correspond to the numbered items in the screenshot.

Number	Description
1	<input type="radio"/> Documents <input checked="" type="radio"/> Documents--Full Text	Select a radio button to change the type of search you are performing.
2	Search Criteria Fields	Area in which you enter search criteria. Refer to Search Criteria Fields for more information about each field.
3	<input type="button" value="Search"/>	After entering search criteria, click to perform the search.
4	<input type="button" value="Reset Form"/>	Removes all search criteria entered if you change your mind while entering search criteria.

Search Criteria Fields

Field	How to Use this Field
Entity Name	Enter the name (or part of the name) of an entity (i.e., company, organization, etc.) in which you are interested. (Sample Searches) An exact match is not required. Therefore, if you enter AC, the search will include all entities with the letters AC within its name (including doing business as name) or with the RCA-assigned short name. Only one entity name or partial name may be entered; if you include terms such as "and," they will be considered part of the entity name.
City	Enter the city of the entity's primary mailing address. An exact match is required. Only one city may be entered. (Sample Searches)

Sample Searches

The following table describes some searches that could be performed using the Search by Type: Entities Search, including defining what would be entered in the search criteria fields. If a field is not listed, it would be left blank.
